

Talking to Your Parents about Money

What You'll Learn

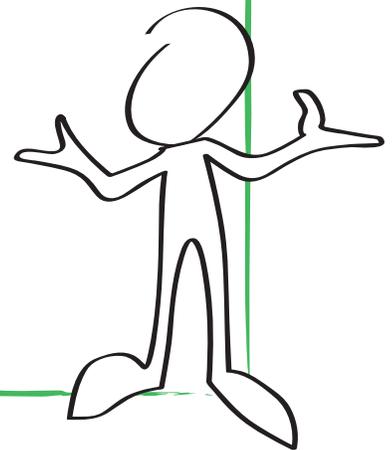

1. How people you live with manage money
2. Ways to talk to your parents about money
3. How talking about money matters with family members helps you make good money choices

Talk About It

Ask your parents:

- What do you like best about money?
- How do you decide how to use your money?
- How do you make sure you don't use more money than you have?

My Notes:

Visit www.bankit.com for more information on making positive money choices.